Are you an enthusiastic, outgoing and motivated person who enjoys developing, maintaining, and building strong relationships with clients? Would you like to play a key role in providing high-tech manufacturers and other businesses with a solution for developing a highly skilled workforce? Then the Manager Client Relationships, Apprenticeship Networks role is for you! The role will be based out of our Greater Detroit Area, Michigan office. Our Apprenticeship Networks Department supports American and German businesses to cover the demand for skilled workforce in various industry sectors. To this end, we assist with the creation of new programs based on the German model of apprenticeships as well as the management of existing programs. In Michigan, GACC Midwest manages the MAT2 Apprenticeship program. For more information, please visit our MAT2 Apprenticeship Program homepage.: <https://mat2apprenticeships.com/>

About the position

What does the Manager Client Relationships, Apprenticeship Networks do?

In this role you can look forward to:

- Identifying, meeting, and consulting with existing and prospective companies, colleges, and other partners with the goal to expand existing apprenticeship clusters and establish new clusters of the MAT2 Apprenticeship program in Michigan.
- Further grow and strengthen GACC Midwest's apprenticeship program services, especially in the State of Michigan and adjacent States.
- Actively cooperating with trade associations, educational institutions, government agencies and other stakeholders to promote and grow the MAT2 Apprenticeship Program in Michigan.
- Coordinating and managing GACC Midwest's services for the MAT2 Apprenticeship program in Michigan in cooperation with the Apprenticeship Networks team of GACC Midwest in Chicago.
- Identifying talent pipelines and establishing close relationships with high-schools and other organizations to support and grow the applicant pool for the MAT2 Apprenticeship program.
- Proactively seeking and monitoring funding opportunities for the MAT2 Apprenticeship program.
- Travelling. In this role a significant amount of time will be spent outside the Chamber's office, visiting current and potential MAT2 Apprenticeship Program apprenticeship network companies, colleges, and other partners, or attending Chamber and partner events.
