The German American Chamber of Commerce of the Midwest (AHK USA - Chicago) is seeking for a Consultant (m/w/d) in Recruiting & Consulting Services. The Consultant, Recruiting & Consulting Services will be based out of our Chicago Downtown office and will support our Consulting Services client companies to achieve their market entry/expansion goals in the US through Recruiting and Consulting Services. Our Recruiting Services Department primarily provides client companies with full-cycle recruitment support with a focus on bilingual (German/English) talent and professionals with transatlantic and/or start-up business experience.

About the position

Responsibilities may include but are not limited to:

- Support the execution of full-cycle recruitment projects spanning a broad range of industries, job functions and seniority levels, including: Developing and posting market-appropriate job descriptions, sourcing candidates, administering inbound applications, conducting screening interviews and maintaining close communication with clients and candidates throughout the search process.
- Assist with the administration of GACC Midwest's internal internship program, including evaluating and tracking applications, maintaining the website and establishing/leveraging relationships with universities and other organizations in both the US and Germany to ensure a steady inflow of qualified internship applicants for all departments.
- Research, analyze and report on market conditions, competitors, regulations, and other topics in order to identify opportunities and potential barriers to market entry across a diverse range of industry sectors.
- As part of GACC Midwest's 'Public Function', advise German companies on relevant employment, visa and labor issues for the US market.
- Build relationships with service providers and GACC Midwest members who have expertise to whom clients can be referred.
- Support Business Development activities as appropriate to gain new client companies.
- Support other Consulting Services projects as appropriate, including Market Research projects, Virtual Offices, Business Partner searches, etc.

Required qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in a relevant business field with initial work experience in fields such as recruiting, sales, HR.
- Proficiency in internet-based research, allowing you to effectively discover, connect with, and evaluate candidates for diverse job openings.
- Proficiency in English; German language skills are a significant advantage.
- Genuine interest in US and German recruiting and hiring processes, with a understanding of cultural nuances.
- Enthusiasm for key industries served by GACC Midwest, such as manufacturing, automotive, renewable energies, and a curiosity for emerging technologies.
- Ability to uphold confidentiality while thriving in a collaborative team environment.
